

the V-nT Platform

Adrian Brathwaite-Founder

Adrian Brathwaite: a Crypto trader, Investor, Sales-Pro and Innovator. He brings years of ingenuity in consultative sales and has worked with many large organizations including Suncor, Irving Oil, Linde Energy, the City of Calgary, Dupont, The University of Saskatchewan and much more. He is also the former owner of Tar Media Productions a reknowned underground hip hop and electronic label formed in the late nineties. In 2012 he ventured into the world of bitcoin. Today at $8000 USD a coin, the rest is history. He brings the combination of predictive capacity, impeccable business development skills and unique creative ideas to the table.

William D. Frazier-Advisor

Mr. Frazier is the Director, International Business Development of Shanghai-America Direct Import (SADIECO) a licensed domestic supply chain and consulting company located in Shanghai, China. He will act as an advisor for the V-nT Platform on Supply Chain issues regarding China and North America specifically

- Build ASEAN expansion with 10 percent increase in business agreements
- Define company's North America and Middle East business engagements
- Negotiate ongoing projects, business initiatives and support program
- Acquire business agreements within trade and service industries
- Oversee company social-media platform to promote company product and service
- Analyze culture trends and business services to ensure business growth
- Execute global consultant and trade agreements for product, supplier and compliance related projects
- Coached and developed staff to engage in fair trade to support small medium-sized enterprises
- Enhance company social media presence on Instagram, Facebook, Twitter, etc. with 60% traffic increase

Miguel Sánchez de Pedro Advisor

Bank and Financial services advisor. Senior Partner and founder of OxValue Advisers SL, a management consulting firm, specialising in banking advisory services to financial intermediaries, small and medium enterprises and start-up ventures. Miguel is a financial professional with a 50+yr banking expertise, and an international career as advisor to the World Bank, EBRO, IFC, IADB, the EU as well as government institutions and the private sector in over 20 developing countries.

Advisory undertakings include privatisations, corporate restructuring, equity investments, financial due diligence, banking regulations, corporate finance, business valuations and hands-on institutional building.

Miguel holds a Degree in Business Administration and former Certified Chartered Accountant (1978 to 2012).